

Greek Brands named as “Top Trading Export Company” winning the Golden award, at Greek Exports Forum & Awards 2020.

Athens, 8/1/2021

Greek Brands Fine Foods won the first award in the category "Top Trading Export Company" participating in the Greek Export Awards. An organization of the Association of Diplomatic Officers of Economic & Commercial Affairs (ENDY UE) of the Greek Ministry of Foreign Affairs in collaboration with Ethos Awards, the financial and business portal banks.com.gr and the financial and investment magazine XRHMA.

The companies that competed in this category had to specify their export activities based on the products, turnover, brand awareness and innovations they presented last year and helped not only themselves but also the total exports of their industry.

Gathering the highest score, the team of Greek Brands, won the 1st Golden award for its excellent export performance and customer orientation in a year with extremely unprecedented difficulties, 2020.

Panos Mavrakis, CEO of our company, said "We are grateful to the judges that rewarded us for our hard work and to all those who supported us with their vote in recognition of the value of our export efforts. The new year could not start more hopefully for us, we are committed to maintain the highest level of our products and services and to improve them even more".

At Greek Brands, adaption to new conditions and the constant need for innovative ways to support our export efforts are key features of the sales, marketing and customer service departments. With every single award, we climb one step higher and approach our goal, which is a sky with no limits!

The Greek Exports Forum & Awards 2020 Award Ceremony will be held on Wednesday, January 20, 2021 as a LiveOn Hybrid Event.

